

Ballynatray Estate

Ballynatray Estate is one of Ireland's hidden gems and is the perfect venue for exclusive, intimate weddings including civil ceremonies. A magnificent Georgian mansion set in an 850-acre estate with breathtaking views over the River Blackwater, the house is fully staffed and organic food is sourced and provided from the estate where possible. Every wedding is unique and the staff at Ballynatray work with each couple individually on planning their special day. The formal dining room is ideal for a candlelit family dinner the night before the wedding. After the wedding ceremony, guests can enjoy a fireworks display over the Blackwater River. During their stay, guests can enjoy all the facilities of the estate - shooting, simulated clay pigeon shooting, boating, canoeing, fishing, horse-riding, tennis, archery, swimming pool, steam rooms, massage room, snooker.
